

CCDA Terms and conditions

Covid19 Update -Spring 2021 onwards

1-Cirencester Creative Dance Academy teachers are responsible for students during lesson time ONLY

2-In the event of a pandemic e.g. (COVID-19) lessons will be transferred to Zoom classes. No refunds will be given and lessons will be transferred to Zoom classes.

3-If a lesson is cancelled due to a staff illness (e.g. sickness bug etc), then an extra lesson will be arranged at a later date to replace the cancelled class but no refunds will be given.

4-Should a lesson need to be cancelled due to extreme weather conditions e.g., snow, or the venue closing, the lessons will NOT be re-arranged or reimbursed due to the factor.

5- A full Terms notice must be given before removing a child from lessons or payment for outstanding fees is required.

6-All fees are payable in advance, non-transferable and non-refundable.

7-If a teacher has to isolate or is taken ill with Covid-19, where possible CCDA will provide a cover teacher for the class if guidelines allow or transfer the lessons to Zoom (this maybe on a different day/time to normal class time).

8-If a student has to self-isolate then no refunds will be issued.
